of Edward Hanlon winning his coming fight with Abe Attell, there is a strong probability that the local

Benny Tanner as the principal attraction

Hanlon is in big demand since his de-

If Tom Reilly is successful against

Capen Pianos

Give Satisfaction and Are Durable.

Just read what one teacher has to say of his Capen:

THE MANLEY B. RAMOS CO., Portsmouth, Va., March 31, 1902.

Gentlemen--The Capen Piano purchased from you some two or more years ago, has stood the test of much hard practicing given it in my work with my pupils. It is now in the same good condition it was when I left your store. The Capen is a good piano and this caused me to buy it. Respectfully, WM. E. AKNAUD.

Organist at St. John's Church and Teacher of Piano and Organ.

We are crowded to the doors with Pianos and more coming. All of them were ordered for the Christmas trade, but are three weeks late in arriving. Our regular price on the Capen is $225 and $250, but to rush them into this week we are selling them at prices which has started them going fast.

$247.00 and $267.00 Until Christmas.

Come while you can get your piano--Oak, Mahogany or Walnut. If you can't come in during this day, come in the evening, as we are open until 8 P.M. We sell them for cash or terms.

GET A FIT

When it comes to artificial plates (it should never come to them if care of the natural teeth would prevent, but that is another story.) When it comes to artificial plates there is just one essential quality to demand. That quality is perfect fit. The essential of a good plate is that it should fit the mouth as perfectly as the natural teeth. That is the assurance that only experience gives.

must comply with the terms of the specifications for the approval of the Board of Public Works and the City Council yesterday in deference to complaints from residents of the First Ward, who allege that the proposed structure will monopolize the street, and was summed up in the following motion, made by E. L. Vaughn, clerk:

"That the Pacific Electric Railway between Alhambra avenue and the City on the same until he receives notice that said plans have been approved.

To forestall any action by the company last night the order was immediately transmitted to Superintendent

McGuire.

Prior to taking action the Council asked the City Attorney for an opinion on the rights of the company and the viaduct. The legal adviser of the Council reported that the authority for

REMARKABLE GROWTH SHOWN.

Statistics showing the remarkable growth of the city in the past year are contained in the comprehensive report of the engineering department, submitted by City Engineer Harry Stafford to the Council yesterday afternoon.

In the beginning, the City Engineer states that the amount of work done in the past year has been the largest in the history of the city. The amount of work done in the office of the

AT THE COURT HOUSE

"WAS HILL FATHER

OF YOUR CHILD?"

STRAIGHT QUESTION PUT TO MRS.

GERTRUDE DRIGGS.

She Was Again on Witness Stand in

Judge Shaw's Court—Told a Sorrowful Story of Her Girlhood—Had to Work in the Fields Like a Farm Hand.

People Could not Speak English.

Mrs. Gertrude Driggs, the counterfeiter's wife, who claims the great fortune of the miser Hill for her little girl, was on the witness stand again yesterday.

She tried to prove from her own lips that she was the paragon of the mysterious old man, and that the child, Gertrude, who claims the money, was not Charles Hill's daughter, but make her acknowledge that the alleged will was signed by Hill under pressure from Driggs, the old counterfeiter, who had been taking place.

But these attempts only met steady denials.

She looked down the strain in the atmosphere, her own lawyers supplied her character with a creamy coat of varnish. In answer to their questions, she was even able to glorify the incident of being arrested in the days of her youth for passing counterfeit money about them.

She and the lawyers had been quibbling and squabbling over some fine point, when Judge Shaw asked her:

"Was not Charles Hill the father of this child whom you say he made his heir?"

She looked down and colored, and said "No" in a very low voice.

"Didn't you make such a statement?"

"No."

"Well, there is a disturbance at the time of the making of this will?"

She made no audible answer at all.

Worked by her attorneys, she was very quiet, but he was persistent.

"Wasn't there," he asked, "a contract at the time to a house child?"

"No, sir," she said. "There never was any such thing."

"Isn't it a fact that the peculiarities of this signature are accounted for by the fact that the man who wrote it was a foreigner?"

"No, sir," she said.

"When I saw her, she had a hard time. If your attorneys have stated

Home did with her illegitimate daughter, that she wants back, has heard from the woman who took the baby away.

Her attorney, William Crawford, got small satisfaction from his private investigation; he received a letter, however, from the woman who took the baby away, which comes to the point with perfect directness. It is from Mrs. Elvira Gordon, formerly known as the officers of the Ransom

Home.

"A letter from my daughter," she says, "tells me that Mrs. Zoblitz is trying to get her baby again. You are on the wrong track. The Ransom Home board knows nothing about the child more than they have told you.

"They have trusted me to see after her ever since her mother gave her to me to find her a home. I was coming to the Ransom Home on my vacation, and I found the babe a good home.

She is now a fine and beautiful child, and I will not let her be taken away from me. I am of an age, I certainly will advise you to let the child stay in the Ransom Home, where she will be happy and safe. I will not let Mrs. Zoblitz get it. I see no reason why I should do so."

"But I am sure," she said, "that she will be made to bring

Mrs. Gordon into court."

COURT NOTES.

BRITISH MISCELLANEOUS.

consideration. Before Mr. Robinson's death, I noted that he was drinking heavily, and one morning came to the store so drunk that I sent him home for the day, and later cautioned him that a recurrence would mean I would have to discharge him. I learned that the death of Mr. Robinson's hard drinking was because of despondency, having lost his wife and child, and his venture at Fresno, and that he drank to drown his trouble. I emphatically deny that there was anything in his work in my department that caused him to drink. I am not sure that I was not in an association agreeable, knowing the circumstances surrounding this part of his life; and the Union Labor News' story that Mr. Robinson was head of matting department, received only $6 a week, and was mistreated, is true.
